

NORTH EAST CTU SEMINAR

FREE Event | 10 December 2015
Middlesbrough Football Club

Hosted by North East of England Process
Industry Cluster (NEPIC)

Event in partnership with cordstrap

Supported by

PD PORTS

EXIS
TECHNOLOGIES

EVENT SUMMARY

Export Legislation is Changing

Find out how the SOLAS Verified Gross Mass legislation and the IMO CTU Code will impact your export business.

NEPIC and Cordstrap invite you to listen, question and network with industry experts. As part of our one day interactive seminar we offer a practical education and advice on:

- The contents of the new legislation/Code.
- How it will impact you
- How to adopt it into your existing operations

AGENDA

09:30 Registration & refreshments

10:00 Speakers:

Introduction and Welcome | Alan Green, Country Manager
| Cordstrap UK

An Introduction to the Code - content, structure and how to use it
Bill Brassington, Owner | ETS Consulting & Consultant to IMO

Cause and Consequence of Poor Cargo Securing | Albert
Weatherill, MIIMS FBACS & MD McAusland Turner, Marine Surveyor

Securing Cargo and Solutions according to the CTU Code | Mark
Openshaw, Senior Applications Specialist | Cordstrap

Lunch & networking

CTU packing under the new Code - chain of responsibility and insurance implications | Mike Yarwood, Claims Executive | TT Club

Training Aids for Industry | James Douglas, Director | Exis
Technologies

SOLAS Weight Verification Requirements | Bill Brassington, Owner
| ETS Consulting & Consultant to IMO.

REGISTRATION

To book your place at this FREE event, please click here
or contact ebba.mcguigan@nepic.co.uk

